The catchcoin Ecosystem

catchcoin Geolocation Technology How It Works - Merchant

The location manager's involvement can be key to the success of the campaign. They can set up time slots, multiple locations, and other user metrics to optimize their campaign. For example, a retailer can increase the likelihood of attracting the demographic of their choosing (age, gender, store) through the settings and metrics in their campaign backend dashboard. All this is controlled by the retailer through their campaign control dashboard and can be changed at any time catchcoin: A dynamic AR app that drives foot traffic to boost retail sales through playful engagement, utilizing cutting-edge mobile tech for time-sensitive deals.

Time-sensitive offers create urgency, motivating consumers to act quickly. Analytics tracks campaign performance, optimizing spend to maximize ROI, catchcoin targets precise audiences in specific geographic regions, delivering tailored offers to individuals within those locations, enhancing local marketing effectiveness.

In the US, there are 3.3 billion loyalty memberships and more than USD 50 Billion worth of value are issued by American businesses annually.

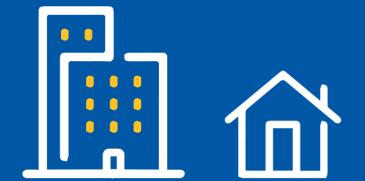

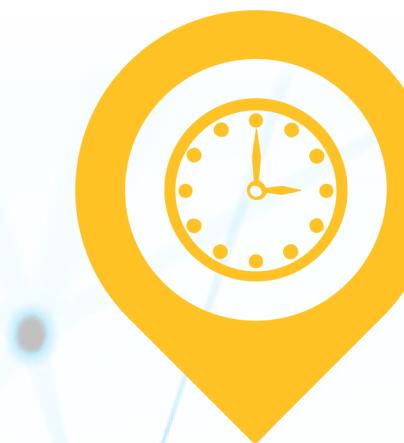

The global loyalty management market size is projected to reach USD 13.8 Billion by 2026.

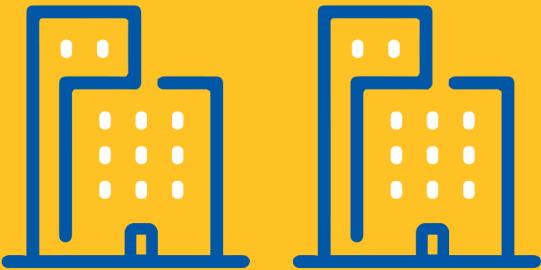

TWO SIDES TO A catchcoin™

catchcoin™ strategically focuses on two primary markets: Business to Business (B2B) and Business to Consumer (B2C). In the current business landscape, enterprises are actively contemplating the retention and cultivation of new customer relationships. Recognizing the inherent human inclination towards routine, many customers seek the gratification derived from remaining loyal to a particular brand. Loyalty programs, once confined to sectors like airlines and groceries, have now expanded to encompass diverse industries. Brands across the spectrum are increasingly inclined to implement rewarding programs, acknowledging the significance of fostering customer loyalty.

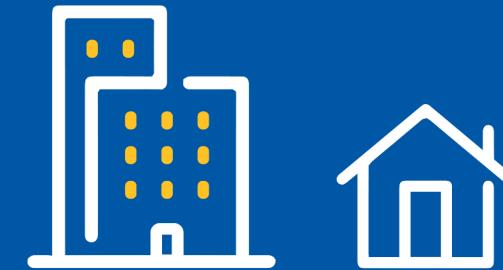

B2B

Any business In North America can join catchcoin™, starting a campaign for as low as $50 to boost foot traffic. Purchase catchcoin (CS) Stable coin from our platform after profile setup. Using the app, businesses create marketing campaigns on the fly for location-based, time-sensitive offers and offer "cash rewards" to attract clients in real time.

B2C (18+)

Unlock potential with catchcoin™! This groundbreaking app revolutionizes retail with endless cash rewards and NFC powered crypto payments. Empowering users with instant and event-based rewards, it transforms shopping, dining, events, and venues into exciting gamified adventures, making discovering new places and activities in your city even more enjoyable. catchcoin™ ensures endless coin accumulation and shopping freedom.

The catchcoin Stable Coin (CS) introduces a distinctive transaction model, featuring a 5% transaction tax on each buy transaction. Notably, 20% of this 5% transaction tax will be specifically allocated to (CATCH) token holders. This means that for every transaction conducted using (CS), a significant 20% of the transaction tax is distributed among those who hold catchcoin tokens, providing them with a substantial and proportional reward for their active participation and ownership in the catchcoin ecosystem. This mechanism is designed to enhance the benefits and engagement for token holders within the catchcoin community.
